PRINCIPAL'S / SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL REPORT

We have had an exciting year at Gloverville Elementary. Our students and staff are to be commended for all the hard work they put forth in making our school year a success. At Gloverville Elementary, we expect to do well in all of our endeavors. We accomplished a great deal as a team. Some of our accomplishments are the following:

- Over a third of our students earned honor roll status for the year;
- The number of students qualifying for the SOAR program continued to grow;
- Our school qualified for a visit from the Exemplary Writing Committee;
- We again were awarded a $6,000.00 grant from the State Department of Education to offer Spanish to all students in grades 4k through 5th;
- Damon Koon, a 1st grader in Mrs. Leopard's class, entered the name Craneosaurus into the South Carolina Ports Authority "Name the Crane" contest. Damon's entry was one of four names selected to name the four cranes;
- Our students earned close to sixteen thousand Accelerated Reader points, an increase of approximately ten thousand points over last year;
- We increased the number of Accelerated Reader books in our school's library;
- A team of educators from Gloverville elementary represented our school at the National School Renaissance Conference in Las Vegas, Nevada;
- Faculty representatives attended a variety of professional conferences;
- Our school's PTO King and Queen Valentine Court (32 students) raised in excess of $8,300.00;
- In October, our school was honored with a visit from our state's governor, Jim Hodges;
- We continue to increase the number of Accelerated books in our school's library;
- We appreciate and look forward to continuing our partnership with the outstanding Teacher Education Department at USC-Aiken.

Ms. Mary Pat Cleland was selected Teacher of the Year for our school, Ms. Emma Hill was selected Classified Employee of the Year, and Mrs. Marion Woodward was selected as Foster Grandparent of the Year.

We appreciate the opportunity to serve our community's families.
